

Harry Heinonen

2018 IHFDA Conference Speaker

---

Harry Heinonen joined the National Pharmacy Compliance Office of Kaiser Permanente as a Pharmacy Investigations Specialist in April 2015. In that role, Harry investigates controlled substance discrepancies and diversion occurring at Kaiser Permanente pharmacies. Recently, the role was expanded to include pharmacy compliance visits to ensure that the pharmacies comply with company policy, as well as state and federal regulations.

Prior to joining Kaiser Permanente, Harry was a Criminal Investigator (Special Agent) with the Drug Enforcement Administration and a Staff Attorney with Dechert, LLP. While at Dechert, Harry worked on a pharmaceutical products liability case involving Vioxx and Merck.

Harry holds an Associate in Applied Science degree from the Berkeley College, a Bachelor of Science degree from Rockford University and a Juris Doctorate degree from New York Law School.
