

Greg Raymond DNP, MBA, RN, NEA-BC

2018 IHFDA Conference Speaker

Presenting:

"Using Huddles to Improve Diversion Investigations"

Dr. Raymond is the Vice President of Nursing and Patient Care Services for Clinical Practice and Professional Development, Neurosciences, and Behavioral Health Services at the University of Maryland Medical Center, University and Midtown Campuses. In this role, Dr. Raymond is responsible for the strategic planning, operational management, quality of care/service delivery, and outcomes for these areas. Prior to his role as Vice President, Dr. Raymond served as a Director of Nursing and Patient Care Services, and Nurse Manager for the Surgical Intensive Care Unit.

Dr. Raymond is an appointed board member of the Maryland State Board of Nursing. He holds a Faculty Associate appointment at the University of Maryland School of Nursing in the Department of Organizational Systems and Adult Health. Dr. Raymond is also Co-Chair for UMNursing, the Academic-Practice Partnership between the University of Maryland Medical Center and University of Maryland School of Nursing.

Dr. Raymond's academic preparation includes a Doctorate in Nursing Practice ('18) from the University of Maryland School of Nursing, a MS ('10) in Leadership and Management from the University of Maryland Baltimore School of Nursing (UMSON) where he also obtained his BSN ('05), and an MBA ('09) from the University of Baltimore Merrick School of Business. He is board certified as a Nurse Executive-Advanced (NEA-BC) from the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), he holds a certificate for Teaching in Nursing and Health Care Professions from UMSON, and Nursing Leadership from The University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business. Dr. Raymond is a member of the nursing honors society Sigma Theta Tau and a lifetime member of international business honor society Beta Gamma Sigma. He holds professional memberships in the American Organization of Nurse Executives and Maryland Organization of Nurse Leaders.