

DENNIS LUKEN

2017 IHFDA Conference Speaker

Presenting:

A Life of Deception, Diversion, and Theft

Dennis Luken is a law enforcement officer with 40 years of experience. He served 25½ years with Cincinnati Police Department and 14½ years with the Greater Warren County Drug Task Force. He spent the last 19 years of his career conducting pharmaceutical drug diversion investigations, including diversion from healthcare institutions.

He also served as the national Treasurer for the National Association of Drug Diversion Investigators (NADDI) and President of the Ohio Chapter of NADDI. He currently serves as Treasurer for the International Health Facility Diversion Association (IHFDA).

He is owner and President of Pharmaceutical Diversion Resources, Inc., a company which provides education and consulting services on a variety of drug abuse topics to law enforcement, health professionals, and training institutions. (www.rxdrugabuse.com)